Post Membership Adopts 'Aggressive' FY 22-23 Budget

With only five members more than the needed 18 for a quorum, the Fiscal Year 2022-2023 budget was approved by the membership with a unanimous vote at Tuesday night's general membership meeting.

Finance Officer Ralph Jordan, noting that the budget called for significant income growth in addition to assuming an 18 per cent increase in expenses, said it was an "aggressive" budget. He noted that the Post is looking at some major repairs in the kitchen as well as already seeing the impacts of inflation on utilities and the cost of bar operations. In other matters, 16 members were added to the Post's membership roster. According to Adjutant Tom Billings this is a record for the Post. Ten of the 16 were transfers and six were new members.

Transfers were: Robert Burrows, Luis Camacho, Eric Edelmann, Robert Gibson, Kenneth Kelshaw, John Stout and Kevin Stone, all from Post 400; Bob Scott from Post 1633; Ed Wallington from Starkville, Miss.; and Ken Hartkopf from Greenwood, S.C.

New members were: Michael Brennan, USA; Garrett Cathcart, USA; Allison Garcia, USMC; Jack Tolbert, USA; Michael Wallis, USAF; and Joseph Yi, USA.

Responding to a question from the floor, leadership reconfirmed that the practice of paying dues for WWII and Korean War members has been reinstated.

Although not announced at the meeting, Post Commander Fred Mahony advised the newsletter that Tina Johnson has been named the committee chair and head VSO of the Post's veterans service committee. She will be soliciting volunteers to help out. Tina can be contacted at tjohnson534@gmail.com for additional information.
